Rumors of the possible closing down of the mills of the Post-Stewart Mill Co. that have been going the rounds since the recent death of Agent Herbert S. Bennett were refuted by an official statement Thursday. In reply to rumors which are going about the Post-Stewart Co. wishes to state that owing to the abnormal condition of the cotton situation we do not intend to purchase cotton in the market at the present time. We do not, however, propose closing our Ray, street mill permanently but are only tied up for want of yarn. The situation is absolutely beyond our control. In regard to our Willam street mill, we are to enlarge this end of the business, as we have more orders on our books and additional ones offered us than we can take care of. This should set at rest all reports that we are closing our Willam street mill.

The company took over the plant of the A. J. Turner Silk Co. in March, 1918. During the period of the war the company employed a number of men, and succeeded so well that a lease was secured for the mill on Willam street, formerly used by the Watts Laundry Machinery Co.

It required only 12 minutes to transact the February business of the town school committee at their meeting in the selectmen's room in the town building Thursday evening. H. Clinton Lathrop presided in the absence of the chairman, Dr. Frank E. Guild. The other members present were Horridas Dion, George S. Elliott, Christopher C. Jones, and P. S. Keating. The resignation of Lawrence A. Howard as vice principal of Windham High school was read and accepted. It was also the medical inspection report of the schools by Dr. Keating. The committee voted to use the library appropriation for the school year of 1920 amounting to $200, one half of which will be repaid by the state. It was also voted to pay substitute teachers at the rate of 35 per cent of $100 per month. Following the reading of bills and the vote to pay them, the meeting adjourned.

An enjoyable meeting of the members of the Trusting circle of the King's Daughters in the form of a Valentine party was held at the home of Mrs. Harry A. Bill, 89 Spring street, Wednesday afternoon and evening. Miss Carrie Bill and Mrs. Charles Lamb were the hostesses. An appetizing supper of baked beans, salted herring, brown bread, pickles, cake, raisin doughnuts and coffee was enjoyed. Twenty-five members were present in addition to two junior members.

All the public schools of the city and that come under the supervision of the town school committee remained closed Thursday but are to open today (Friday) with the exception of Windham High school. The Windham street, Oak and South Windham schools, which come under state supervision, were in session Thursday but are closed today.

These are busy days for the members of San Jose council, No. 14, K. of C. Their annual minstrel show was held Monday evening. The second degree was worked on a large class of candidates in the council rooms in the opera house Thursday night, and Sunday afternoon the third degree will be completed. The candidates of the town hall under the direction of District Deputy Edward Mullen of Putnam and other officers.

Miss Delima R. Parent and Francis X. Boucher, both of this city, were united in marriage Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at St. Mary's church by the Rev. J. J. Papillon. Miss Rose Boucher, a niece of the groom, was bridesmaid, and Arthur A. Parent, brother of the bride, was best man. The bride wore navy blue beaded dress over satin and wore a picture hat. The bridesmaid was attired in navy blue dress. Following the ceremony, a dinner was served to members of the two families at the home of the bride. After a short honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Boucher will reside at 123 Union street, Willimantic. The bride received many gifts, including china, cut glass, linen and silver. Guests were present from New London, Providence, Hartford, Meriden, Worcester, Mass., and New Jersey.

The following officers were elected by the Willimantic board of underwriters at the annual meeting held in the office of George S. Elliott in Jordan block Thursday afternoon: President, George S. Elliott; treasurer, William L. Sweeney; secretary, R. M. Goddard of Boston; executive committee, Thomas J. Kelley, James Harries and Edward F. Whitmore.

Principal James L. Harroun of the Natatorium grammar school is planning to attend the banquet and meeting of the Connecticut Teachers' Federation in Hartford this (Friday) evening.

Augusta A. widow of Matthew Harroun, died Wednesday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gerson Rathbun, of 25 Park street. Mrs. Fox was born in East Haddam March 10, 1858, the daughter of David and Mary Gerson. Her death was due to cerebral apoplexy. In addition to Mrs. Rathbun, Mrs. Fox is survived by another daughter, Mrs. C. L. Jones, also of Willimantic; Mrs. Sarah S. Lewis of Madison, Conn., and nine grand-children.

The funeral of Frederick A. Dimeck was held at his home, 184 Walnut street, Thursday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock. Rev. Harry S. McCready, pastor of the Congregational church, officiated. The bearers were Mayor Charles A. Gates, Robert E. Smith, No. 32 South street, Thursday morning at 3:30 o'clock. The requiem high mass was sung by the pastor, Rev. John E.

JEWETT CITY

There was but a half day session at the Riverside Grammar school on Thursday, and Lincoln's day was celebrated with patriotic ceremonies and exercises. The program was as follows: American flag by school; Story of Lincoln, by James Stafford; Cleo Couture; Battle Hymn of the Republic, sung by school; Citizenship Speech, produced by Christine Burdick, recited by eighth grade; The Women Who Influenced Abraham Lincoln's Life, Doris Johnson; The Star Spangled Banner, sung by school.

A local flower-lover planted just full a number of bulbs in a box, well supplied, according to rule, with farmyard fertilizer. Last evening the boxes were put on the cellar and placed in the window; the owner meanwhile prepared to study botany from life, as the flowers proceeded to grow. Now under the influence of the warm room and the bright sunlight it is discovered that it is necessary to be an entomologist as well. Thursday morning there were no less than six different sorts of insects crawling about on the window pane.

Leslie B. Bliss, elder son of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Bliss of East Main street, has been for several years consulting engineer for the T. T. Ley Co. of Springfield, Mass. With a largely increased salary Mr. Bliss is now at Fairmont, West Virginia, as head of the auditing and accounting department. The Ley Co. is at work on a large construction job there.

There is a man who lives well toward the upper end of East Main street. He is a protuberant fellow, a number of fancy hens that lay fancy eggs. The other day when it was slippery, and then some, he was coming down the street with live hens on his shoulders. He suddenly, without notifying his friends, performed a fancy double-twisted aerial stunt in connection with which a certain period he threw the hens high in the air, failing to catch them on their way down, he at that time being too busy. The B-n family now subsist largely on fancy egg soup.

Charles L. Whitman, 61, died at his home in Voluntown Wednesday. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Helen LaChapelle, of that place.

Dr. J. B. Sweet was called to the home of Jerry Doyle on the Plainfield road Wednesday. Mrs. Doyle had fallen and broken her arm close to the shoulder bone. Mrs. Doyle is the mother of Mrs. Michael E. Shea, Mrs. James H. Shea, Mrs. Eugene J. Carroll and Mrs. John T. Dolan, all of Jewett City, and Mrs. Charles Cox of Greenfield, and Miss Hannah Shea, who lives at home.

A number of flags were displayed about the borough Thursday in honor of Lincoln's birthday.

A number of photographs of snow scenes in parts of the town. Photographs will hardly believe it when some 100 in the shade day next Sunday. The pictures will show the views of a few months past.

Wardner McCarthy had a force of men out shoveling snow Thursday. In many places under two feet of snow there is a foot of ice. The gutter, the hydrant and all clear in case necessity demands their use.

The Old Homestead has struck the town. A number of photographs are being taken of snow scenes in parts of the town. Photographs will hardly believe it when some 100 in the shade day next Sunday. The pictures will show the views of a few months past.
